

Winnipeg Goldeyes Baseball Club

Assistant Clubhouse Manager

Classification: Seasonal

The Winnipeg Goldeyes are looking for an Assistant Clubhouse Manager for the 2018 season. This person will be primarily responsible for the overall management of the Visiting Clubhouse as well as the Visiting team and Umpires. The Assistant Clubhouse Manager will assist the Clubhouse Manager at all home games. This position will begin at the end of April and run through to the end of the regular season and playoffs in early to mid-September.

Duties & Responsibilities (including but not limited to):

- Daily Cleaning of the Clubhouses (Home, Visitors & Umpires). This includes but is not limited to the locker rooms, bathroom area, food and laundry room areas.
- Maintain and stock beverages for players and coaches
- Laundry (uniforms, personals, towels)
- Drop off and pick up uniforms to be tailored as requested by the Clubhouse Manager
- Set up pre & post game meals
- Pick up equipment or groceries prior to arrival at the ballpark as needed
- Required to work all 52 home games and be at the ballpark during training camp on a daily basis to hand out equipment and get players set up. As well as staff the clubhouse during off days in which the team is at home in Winnipeg, this may be for workouts or children's camps.
- Thorough cleaning of the home clubhouse the day after the team leaves for a road trip.
- Other duties as assigned by the Clubhouse Manager or Athletic Therapist
- Must be punctual
- Must have valid driver's license
