Rick Forney on Kevin Lachance: I'm excited both John (Gorman) and Kevin have decided to play for us again. Kevin is a great player. He works and plays very hard, day in and day out. He dealt with knee and wrist issues that hurt his numbers a bit, but he is still a very valuable rookie to have on our club.

Rick Forney on Jay Gonzalez: Jay is a good defender in centre field who hits from the left side. He's one of those guys that gives you a good, professional at bat, and is willing to take a walk if it's given to him. We're looking for some guys that can hopefully come into our lineup and walk as many times as they strike out. He can steal bases, score runs, and do some things. That's the kind of guy we're looking for, so I'm excited about him.

Rick Forney on Tyler Hill: Tyler was fantastic for us. He plays super, super hard. He came in and sparked our lineup in 2019 and was a big difference-maker. When the Royals picked him up, he jumped right into the middle of the lineup in Wilmington, hit over .400, and helped them win a championship. He had a great experience with us, and is anxious to get back to Winnipeg. Hopefully he'll have similar results and end up back in affiliated ball.

Rick Forney on Max Murphy: I'm a big fan of Max. The year he was picked up by the Diamondbacks, no one could get him out. He was locked in and hitting everything hard. He's a great defender who covers a lot of ground with a good throwing arm. He's a guy that plays a lot of ballgames for you and understands independent baseball. He's a phenomenal player, and I'm thrilled to have him.

Rick Forney on Ken Frosch: Ken's a really good left-handed reliever. He gave us fits when he was with the Saints, and did so with every team in the league. He's a sidearm left-hander that can execute pitches in high-leverage situations. We saw him wear many hats in the Saints' bullpen over the years. We were looking for a good left-on-left matchup guy, and we're hoping he can be that guy again for us.

Rick Forney on Christian James: Christian is a sinker-baller who pounds the zone and lets the defence play behind him. At one point, he was one of the top-30 prospects in the Mets' organization. We're going to bring him in and give him a chance to hold down a spot at the back-end of our starting rotation. The velocity is good, the sink is good, and we're hoping he can give us 20 starts and 120 innings. He throws the ball over the plate and did really well in a short audition at Double-A, so I'm excited to add a young prospect like Christian.

Rick Forney on Eduard Reyes: Eduard is a good starting pitcher that has had some success in the Can-Am League. He's a strike-thrower, and I think he'll be a nice addition to our rotation. He threw really well in that makeshift league in New Jersey last year, and in 2019, he won nine games and threw over 100.0 innings. He's the kind of guy I'm hoping to be counting on to give us 20 starts, hopefully throw 120.0 innings, and give us a chance to win some ballgames.

Rick Forney on Logan Hill: I love Logan Hill. He's a guy that plays hard every day and gives you everything he's got. He had really good affiliated numbers and did a good job for us last year. There's a lot of power in that bat, and he's a fantastic person who has a good attitude and just comes to play baseball every day.

Rick Forney on Nate Antone: I'm really impressed with Nate and what he was able to accomplish last year. He worked very hard last year to get himself back in tremendous shape. He was always 94 to 97 miles per hours, showed flashes of a good, developing slider, and he has a nice little change-up that he can offer to left-handers. He was fantastic for us last year and still has rookie classification, so he's obviously a very valuable piece to our bullpen and our entire roster makeup.

Rick Forney on Kyle Martin: To me, Kyle was the MVP of the league last year. He had a remarkable season. He's a great run-producer, he loves to play the game, and he plays hurt if he has to. I'm not sure he was even 50 percent health-wise over the last month of the season, and you saw how productive he still was. In my opinion, he's the best defensive first baseman in the league as well. He's really important to our club, and I'm thrilled to have him back in the middle of our lineup.

Rick Forney on Darren Seferina: We needed some speed in the lineup and another left-handed bat to help balance things out a bit. He can also play a lot of positions for us which is important. When he gets going, he has the athletic ability to impact your team both offensively and defensively, so we're happy to have him.

Rick Forney on Kyle Thomas: The velo is good, and he can give us multiple innings out of the bullpen. He's an intriguing guy for me. He's young, has worked very hard, and you can tell that he misses the game after sitting out last year. He's anxious to get out there and compete, and I think he can be a really nice rookie for us.
